Crocheted by

Amanda Bloom and her team at Little Box of Crochet offer a gorgeous monthly subscription box of crochet treats.

Earlier this year they contacted us about designing a bespoke stamp that would be included in their May box.

We are delighted to announce that this little stamp has now made it on to our art stamp listing so you can all get your hands on one.

Read on to find out why we will be donating 50% of the sales of this stamp to Rainbow Trust!

When Amanda's daughter Jenny was diagnosed with an aggressive brain tumour in 2013 at age 15, creativity became the Mother-Daughter duo's comfort blanket and therapy. The strength both have shown is incredible and the community they have built in the world of crochet has grown and grown.

We are proud to have been involved in the May box which included everything needed to create the gorgeous crocheted mandala above, a beautiful tribute to Jenny.

When we asked Amanda which charity she would like our crochet stamp sales to help, she told us about Rainbow Trust Children's Charity.

A national charity supporting families caring for a child with a life threatening or terminal illness. It offers emotional and practical support for the whole family through its nine care teams of Family Support Workers, who help families at home, in hospital or in the community to make life a little easier.
